

Media in the Web

In Week 2 we talked about media in the web. We worked in groups and each group had to write everything they knew about media in the web. After that we had to switch our notes and complete each other's notes. The yellow notes are the additional information we missed that other group members added. We also added information to the sheet we received.