

My Pet Rock Dwayne – Documentary Script

Emma:

khm...is it starting?...ohh okay

Interviewer:

Can you please introduce yourself?

Emma:

Yes, my name is Emma, I'm 20 years old...uhm...I'm a psychology student at Fontys university...not much to say... I live with my bestfriend... well not legally, since he hasn't received his BSN yet... yeah we had some beef with the government.

(lift the rock) His name is Dwayne I feel like it really fits him for some strange reason. (put it down and pause)

I do everything with him. He is a delicate creature, so he needs a lot of attention. Whenever I leave my flat, I take him with me since I'm afraid he will get into trouble alone. He gets food twice a day (feeding scene) although he really likes to eat. But I'm a broke university student and I cannot afford financing his eating habits (pause). We go on a walk at least once (walking scene), thought if it rains, he doesn't like to go out.

I:

How did the two of you meet?

E:

Oh, I remember that day as if it was just yesterday. (meeting scene) It happened 3 years ago, I had a terrible day and felt incredibly lonely. Then out of the blue I saw him, just laying there on the ground left behind, alone. I knew right away that he felt the same way as me, so I took him in.

I:

How would you describe your relationship with Dwayne?

E:

It has it's ups and downs. Like in every relationship we have small arguments. He is not really considerate (music scene), oh I hate that damn rock music, but compromises must be made in a healthy relationship. I feel like we really filled a big hole in each other's lives and can understand one another on the sincerest level partners can. Because at the end of the day that's what we are - lifelong partners, I cannot imagine my life without him. (emma goes to sleep) (love montage) (rock escapes)
